

It costs money to rebuild torched buildings

THE CAMP FORTY ACRES BOARD OF DIRECTORS: inspecting the burned out Craft Building at Camp Forty Acres, set on fire by an arsonist on September 29th. They doubt if they have enough money to repair the damage, and they want the work to be done before the snow sets in.
At left is Frank Toffe, new Scoutmaster of Troop 55. Next is Evelyn Kaminaki, president of the Board of Directors; then Charles Gentry of Silverhurst Avenue, and Jacques Desmarais of Malden, Scout leader.

Sam Grant's gas license hearing

After a one and a half hour hearing, Tuesday night, marked by much cross interrogation by opposing counsel, the Wilmington

DEPUTY FIRE CHIEF DANNY WANDERL: Being sworn in by Attorney Tom Rime, on Town Councilman Alton Almon, in back of Rime, instantly Sam Grant, a former Wilmington resident, is in back, in front of the back view.

Selectmen unanimously revoked a license owned by Sam Grant, former Wilmington resident, now of Tewksbury, to sell gasoline at a garage he owns at the corner of Shawheen Avenue and Main Street.

Only the license to sell was revoked. Mr. Grant is to be permitted to store gasoline, and to store fuel oil. He has three tanks of 3,000 gallons each for gas, and a capacity of 40,000 gallons of fuel oil, all in underground tanks.

Mr. Grant has had a license for gas storage since 1948, with the Texas Oil Company and later Gulf Oil being the suppliers. There was testimony that there had been no gas sold since 1965, and that the pumps were removed in 1969 by Gulf Oil.

Grant told the Selectmen that he had tried to get Gulf to take out the gas tanks, but unsuccessfully. He wanted to retain gas tanks for the use of his tenants, and this was allowed by the selectmen.

Bill Pierce's junk car was removed

William Pierce is the gentleman who lives at the end of Washington Avenue, in Wilmington, at the site where last week the Town Crier said there might be a collision between an irresistible force (the Wilmington Planning Board) and an immovable object (the Wilmington Selectmen).

Presumably he owns a part of the land on which Washington Avenue extension runs.

Mr. Pierce added his filip to the controversy Tuesday, in the shape of a junk Ford, which was placed across the extension of Washington Avenue so as to stop all traffic.

Jay Tighe, builder of the Glen Acres real estate development had pictures taken, which he delivered on Tuesday evening to the Board of Selectmen and Wilmington Planning Board. The Selectmen told Tighe that the car would be removed. (It was Wednesday morning). They also told Tighe that they had no intentions of allowing Washington Avenue to be connected with Glen Acres.

Selectman, Danny Gillis, a former member of the Planning Board, said that he would make arrangements for a joint meeting if needed, with the Planning Board. Gillis declared that to connect the two roads would lead to accidents at the point where Clark Street and Washington Avenue meet, and the selectmen reaffirmed their opposition to the proposal.

BILL PIERCE'S JUNK FORD: Across the end of Washington Avenue extension, Tuesday afternoon.

Wilmington RR Depot There'll be some changes made

The Wilmington Railroad depot has a new owner, and the lady has her eye on making a few changes like a rug on the floor, and paneled walls. Marie Ardolino has bought the old depot, and Thursday morning (today) she is going to open the doors to the travellers at 6 am sharp.

Mrs. Ardolino is planning a variety store, with knick-knacks, and newspapers for customers.

She has an extensive list of items. The station, she says, will be open from 6 am to 9 pm daily.

There is a lot of work to be done. Part of the former ticket office has disappeared - there is no more ticket agent. New plywood, decorative, is going up. There will be racks for magazines and newspapers.

Later, when she gets things fixed up, there will be a sort of Grand Opening.

MARIE ARDOLINO: Looks over her renewed station.

Selectmen somewhat miffed To dedicate restored section of Middlesex Canal Saturday

The part of the old Middlesex Canal which goes under the new bridge, near the Eames Farm is to be dedicated Saturday, in exercises beginning at 2 pm at the canal site. Members of the Proprietors of the Middlesex Canal Association will be in charge of the exercises, which is planned to feature the Campbell Bagpipe Band of Andover; a salvo from the Company of Lexington Minute Men, and a presentation of the restored section of the canal, by the Wales Construction Corp. to the Society of Industrial Archaeology, Dr. Thomas Liu, president of the Boston section.

In overall charge will be Prof. Douglas P. Adams of M.I.T., who is the president of the Canal Association. State Senator Ronald MacKenzie and Representative Fred Cain have been invited to represent the Commonwealth, along with Commissioner Bruce Campbell of the Massachusetts Department of Public Works.

James R. Miceli chairman of the Board of Selectmen has been invited, and other Wilmington officials invited include: Stanley Webber of the Wilmington Historical Society; Walter Kohler of the Historical Commission; Barry Gardner of the Bicentennial Commission; Mrs. Ursula Leahy of the Conservation Commission and Sterling Morris, Town Manager.

The Board of Selectmen, Tuesday night, reading the letter of invitation, were more than slightly miffed. They noted that a Scottish Band was being brought into the home town of the Cardinals of Massachusetts, that the Wilmington Company of Minutemen had been bypassed, and that they seemed to be excluded.

An arch has been constructed under the new bridge for the Middlesex Canal, and it is planned to restore about one quarter of a mile of the old waterway. As of yesterday afternoon everything was dry. Part of Saturday's program calls for towing a canal barge through the waterway.

The archway and the restored portion of the canal are being constructed as the result of action by Professor Adams, during a public hearing of three or four years ago in the Wilmington Memorial Library. He drew the attention of S. Clark. There is to be a continuing slide show presentation of old canal, which was constructed between 1791 and 1803, and was the first traction canal in the United States.

THE MIDDLESEX CANAL ARCH: Under the new Bridge 129 Bridge, near the Eames Farm, as it appeared on Monday. The viewer is looking northward toward the site of the old Silver Lake Railroad station. It is doubted at this time if there will be any water in the canal on Saturday.

Disner program

There is to be a dinner program at the Ramada Inn, in Woburn, at the Middlesex Canal Park, starting at 4:30 pm with a reception featuring the publication of "Old Middlesex Canal" by Mrs. Edwin Richards of Weston, and further on is Selectman Neil Niven Jr., of Tewksbury, and Mrs. Ruth Aubert, Executive Secretary to the Tewksbury Board.

High School history students, and the dinner will be at 6:30 pm with vice president W.M. Hoxie presiding.

Ross Holland of the National Park Service is to be one of the guests, and another will be Dr. Charles H. W. Foster, Secretary of Environmental Affairs of the Commonwealth.

The dinner tickets are to cost $6.50, and reservations must be made prior to the dinner.

Follow a leader!

As a Republican, I can only follow a leader in county government by supporting Walter J. Sullivan, the Democratic candidate for sheriff of the Middlesex County.

Walter Sullivan has been in government for 15 years as a state representative, as a Cambridge city councilman and as Mayor of Cambridge and Chairman of the School Committee. He is a sensible, effective administrator.

John Buckley has been sheriff for four years. He has overspent his budget and started programs that can not work. We can no longer afford unskilled management.

In 1974, for example, he piled up $45,366.55 in unpaid bills that now can not be paid without special approval by the state legislature.

In 1970 - 1971, he spent a federal grant of $180,661 that was supposed to pay for work release and electronics training programs for about 400 inmates. In fact, only 70 inmates took part in the work release program; only 46 inmates participated in the training course and only two of them completed it.

We think it's time to stop playing games. We believe that Walter Sullivan will bring sensible administration to the Sheriff's office.

Let's elect a sensible sheriff

Water can cause serious damage to your house, no matter what form it comes in - snow, ice, frost, dew, vapor or plain wet weather. It can attack the structure itself; the walls, ceilings, mechanical equipment and painted surfaces, as well as your furnishings and household goods.

The main danger in winter is condensation. If you are doubtful about your moisture situation, you can find out about it by buying a relatively simple instrument called a hygrometer.

This allows you to measure the relative humidity of your house at any time.

For a full line of supplies and advice on how to do a job, be sure to see us at SWEET'S HOME COURTESY CENTER, 615 Main St., 658-3051. Our large unfinished furniture display includes the hardwoods and we stock Orlite indoor and outdoor carpeting and Ludlow carpeting in many colors and patterns. Installation will also be handled. Open: Daily 8 am to 5 pm.

Helpful hint: If your windows fog up, you can be pretty sure your house has too much humidity.

Spotlighters Dinner Theater November 2

What would you do if the lights went out? Why try and get them turned on? Suppose you had borrowed your neighbor's furniture while he was away, and he suddenly returns earlier than you planned. Suppose your ex-mistress comes to call while you are entertaining your new fiancée. Would you be in any hurry to see the light? These are just a few of the uproarious developments that Miss Bonnie MacAdams of Peabody served as bridesmaids while Amalie Tuffin of Acton paved the bride's pathway with flowers and her brother, Michael Tuffin served as ringbearer for the dinner theater dance at the Casa di Fior on November 2nd.

Included in the cast are: Ron Whitney, Paula Winters, Anne Mahoney, George Sperry, Bill Silvestri, Elaine DePasquale, Bob Jennings and Larry Doucette. Director is Veronica Hensley.

An entire evening of delightful entertainment has been planned. In addition to "Black Comedy" the high point of the evening, you may enjoy a cocktail hour with punch selections by Norm Demarais; a lavish roast beef dinner and dancing till one a.m. to the music of the Interhubs.

Tickets are $12.50 per person. Last year's show was a complete sell-out, so be sure to make reservations now. Call Ann Whitney at 658-3440 anytime after 3 p.m.

Of probable interest to taxpayers at this time, whether home owners or businessmen, is a case in the Massachusetts Courts called The Sudbury Case.

The Town of Sudbury seeks, through the courts, to compel all towns and cities of Massachusetts to not only have all assessments of property at 100% valuation, but to have those assessments kept up to date on a yearly basis. It is a matter of strong interest to anyone who pays property taxes, and the Commonwealth, through the office of the Department of Corporations (which is another way of saying Tax Commissioner) is keeping the Assessors of the towns and cities aware of the problem.

To review briefly:

Say twenty years ago there was no specific rule as to the assessments to be charged in the towns and cities. Some Assessors charged at 50% of valuations. Some at 60%. Some at 70%. Rarely was there a 100% assessment.

In a sense this was fair in some of the towns and cities. Everyone in those towns and cities got the same treatment.

In others there were games. The mayor would have an assessor who would charge home owners at 50% and industrial building owners at 120%, to take two figures. There were more home owners voting than industrial building owners, and the results would show up when the voters went to the polls. It was a part of a big game and Massachusetts had its share of cities where this happened.

Then, 15 or so years ago, there was the Springfield Case. A law suit in that city over assessments was decided with the court ruling that every town and city had to do its assessing on a 100% of valuation basis. That, it was felt, would assure the tax payers that everything was fair and square.

There was another flaw. Call it the Cherry Sheet Game. Wilmington was the first town to announce that it had a 100% valuation. In a sense that was an honor. Wilmington was conforming to the law of the land - when other towns were not.

That showed up in the Cherry Sheet, with adverse financial statements to Wilmington. The Cherry Sheet, as many know, is the annual statement of accounts between the cities and towns, individually, and the Commonwealth, counties, etc.

The formulae are complex. The Cherry Sheet shows how much money a town can expect to receive, and how much it will have to pay, during the year. There are provisions which are designed to help out the poorer communities.

A town with, say, $60 millions in valuation but of equal size and population to one of $100 millions, will receive more state aid from the Commonwealth. This, even if the $60 million figure is arrived at by ledger-math of using a 60% valuation.

In other words, a municipality will find that it pays off to be at less than 100% valuation. A full valuation means the taxpayers, as individual home owners pay more.

Consider the cases of Tewksbury and Woburn. According to reports in the past decade both municipalities have been assessing, at least in part, at 60% of valuation. Both have had advantages from the Cherry Sheet which Wilmington taxpayers did not get. Wilmington has been, during this time, at nearly 100% of valuation.

Last year the Town of Tewksbury had a re-valuation. It probably was quite fair, but there are those taxpayers who are unhappy. Woburn, at the present time is undergoing a revaluation.

Soon both of those communities will be at 100% valuation, or nearly so. Wilmington, during the past few years, has been slipping, mainly because of the inflations in real estate value. To make a guess, Wilmington is now at about 70% of true valuation, in its assessments.

That's what makes the Wilmington tax rate so favorable this year. The Wilmington taxpayers are getting more money from the state via the Cherry Sheet route.

In Tewksbury and in Woburn, comes the next taxing period, the old advantage will be gone. They will be where Wilmington has been in the recent history of tax rates - individually paying more.

Wilmington officials are aware of the problem and it is probable that they will be asking for more money, in order to have another re-appraisal for next year. Some Wilmington tax payers will be unhappy, for it is only a few years ago that Wilmington had a re-appraisal.

How the courts will rule, in the Sudbury Case, is still anyone's guess. The answer will be of interest to every taxpayer in Massachusetts.

WILDCAT TALES

Gridders bow to Lawrence

The WHS Wildcats were once again plagued by mistakes and penalties and dropped their second contest of the season, 19-12.

In the first quarter of the contest, neither team moved the ball any great lengths, and each squad's possession was located in their own end of the gridiron.

Wilmington, with Carl Butler now in as quarterback, moved the ball from their own 30 yard line to the Lawrence 20 on six running plays. After an incomplete pass to Dana Mullarky, senior co-captain, Bob Bavota unloaded his third complete halfback option pass, this time an 18 yarder to Mike Mazzola standing all alone in the corner of the endzone.

Jack Styles' kick was blocked, and Wilmington led, 6-0.

Two quick scores by the Lancers on a 40 yard pass and a 60 yard run gave Lawrence a 13-9 lead at halftime.

Chris Rounds, Bob Dorval, Jack Styles and Dana Mullarky all charged in on the Lawrence punter in the third stanza, blocked the kick at the 13 yard line and then watched Chris Rounds pick up the pigskin and dance into the endzone for Wilmington's second touchdowns. A delay of game penalty on the Wildcats put Coach Bellissimo's eleven on the eight yard line for the conversion try, but Jim Stewart's run fell short.

Wilmington held the ball for the first 8:02 of the final quarter of the game and drove the ball to the Lancer 19 yard line, but a twelve yard sack of Stewart set the Wildcats back to the 31 yard line, and gave Lawrence the game.

Lawrence laddered an insurance score with 30 seconds left in the contest to fulfill the 19-12 score.

Bob Bavota ran for 107 yards in the game.

Harriers take sixth straight

October 11: Coach Kelley's squad gained its fifth straight victory last Friday downing Austin Prep 21-40. Doug Spring (14:00) out-distanced Ian MacInnis for the top spot, while Sean Callahan's third place was the lone bright spot for the Cougars. Consistent Pete McNaughton overtook Mark Arsenault on the last quarter mile for fourth, while juniors Barry Foster (six) and Tony Gravelles (seven) rounded out the varsity scoring.

For the victorious jayvees it was Lenny Graves breaking the tape, followed by Gary Balestrieri (three) and Ken Liston (four).

In the freshman race, Tim Sughue was out-fought over the last 200 yards, but gained a strong second place. Tom Walsh (three) and Bill Blaisdell (recording a personal best for fourth) were the margin of victory to complete a clean sweep for the Eldcats.

October 15: Andover Captain Dave Pratt put on a vicious spring at the end to overtake Wildcat Captain Dave Spring and Ian MacInnis at the tape, but the varsity went on to gain the next three places after Doug and Ian to embarrass the Golden Warriors 20-44. Coach Kelley's crew 6-9 since that heart-breaking loss to Central in the first meet, upped their state to 6-1 with only one meet to go.

Following Spring and MacInnis were McNaughton (four) Foster (five) and Gravelles (six) finishing in the same order as the Austin meet.

Gary Balestrieri finished strong to record a personal best while gaining the top spot for the jayvees, with freshmen Tom Walsh and Tim Sughue gaining the next two spots for the victorious contingent.

Next meet: At Chelmsford Thursday, October 17th at 3:30 pm.

Distaffs up slate

After seven games the Wilmington girls field hockey team's record is five wins, no losses and two ties. The game with Methuen ended in another scoreless game as both teams failed to score.

The next game played against Dracut ended in a 2-1 victory for Wilmington as senior Pat Bransfield scored both goals for Wilmington. Yesterday's game at Andover ended in a big victory for Wilmington as they scored three goals within the first three minutes of the game, one goal was called back though.

Wilmington really wanted the victory over Andover because last season Andover defeated Wilmington in the playoffs which gave Andover the championship.

Scoring the goals for Wilmington were Captain Doria McMillan, one and Tammy Oliveri three. Tammy just came back to the team after she was out three games with a shoulder injury. Scoring the goal which was called back was Lori McNabb.

The jayvees record is 5-1-1. As they went against Methuen and Dracut. They lost in a close 3-2 game with Andover yesterday.

Tewksbury slips by Recs, 1-0

Sat. Oct. 13: In the MVGHL seasonal opener for both Wilmington and Tewksbury in the MVGHL, the blue and red squad scored a goal in the middle stanza to upset the Recs, 1-0.

Coach Buckman's sextet dominated play only to have all of the twenty-five shots stopped by Tewksbury's sparkling netminder, Patty Backus. Junior goalie Cathy Bristol turned in her usual fine game in the Wilmington nets. The winning marker came off the stick of Mike Ryan at the 9:17 mark of the middle frame. Doreen Furdok picked up the lone assist.

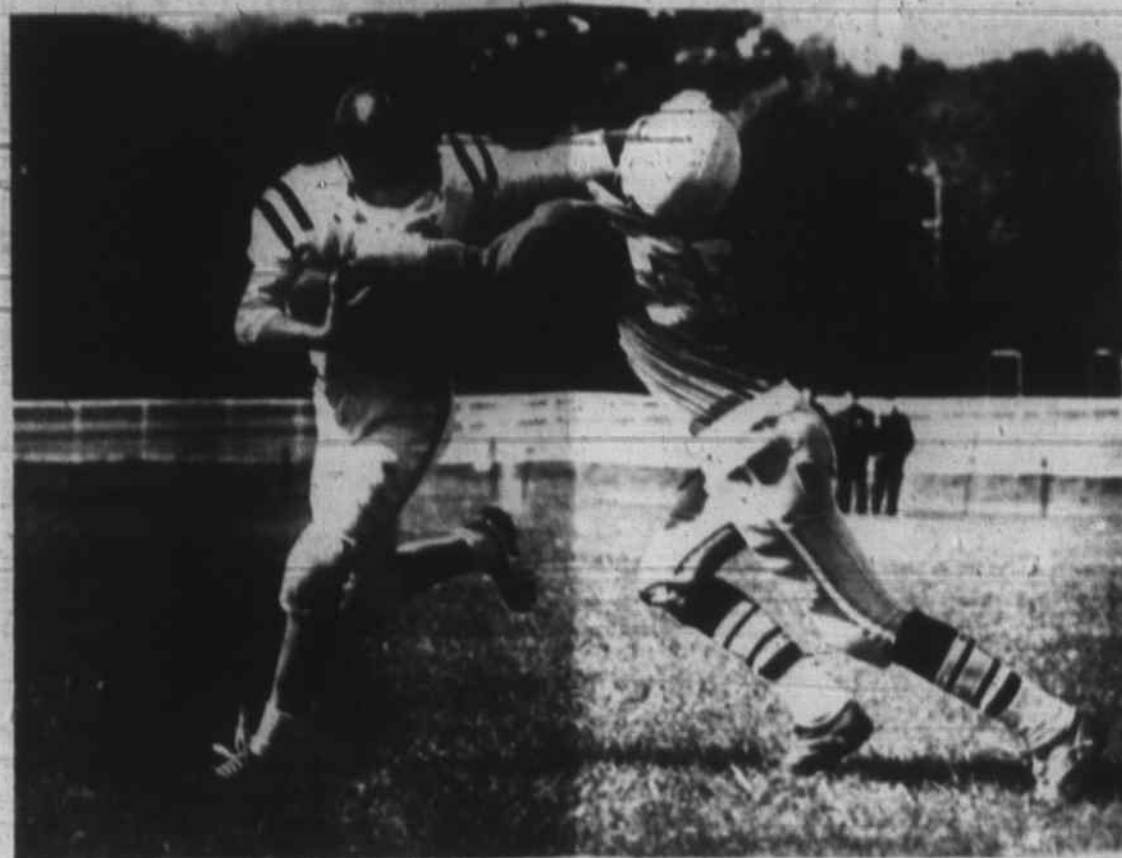

Both clubs will be in action this weekend, with the Recs playing a non-league encounter with North Reading tomorrow afternoon at the Wilmington Youth Ice Arena. Each team has a MVGHL game

Saturday night in Nashua with Tewksbury facing the Shawheen Squaws and the Recs battling the Hudson Kitty-Hawks.

FLAG FOOTBALL

Boutwell blanks Woburn Street

The Recreation flag football season got underway this past Monday evening as the machine-like Boutwell Vikings skinned the Woburn Street aggregate on the local Town Park gridiron by a 27-0 score.

The Vikings, coached by Mike Barcellos, Mr. Baker and Bob Muldoon, received a good performance from all team members especially Brian McGrath and Keith MacDonald who each scored a touchdown plus Tom Hawshis who scored twice for the winners.

Standouts for the Viking defense were Chuck McNeil, Brenda Baker and Cantania Brothers. The Virtus and Ruvo, coached Woburn Street team, although showing some weakness, did produce standout efforts by David Woods and Dan Gentile.

This coming Sunday, Glen Road, coached by Tom Mardin, will take on Coach Andre's Shawheen team in a 4:00 pm tilt at the Town Park.

On Monday the 21st, it's Boutwell vs Glen Road at 6:00 pm and Woburn Street vs Shawheen at 7:15.

Donkey hockey invades WHS

Wilmington men versus donkeys. That's right - men versus donkeys. The donkey hockey game scheduled at Wilmington High School on October 22nd, will put the teachers against students in a game that will be filled with laughs, thrills and fun galore. We say "men versus donkeys," because the players on both teams will have their problems moving the stubborn donkeys around the gym. They'll have trouble staying on the donkeys from time to time. Of course, this will bring much laughter to the fans. Donkey hockey has often been called the "funniest show on earth." It combines the circus, rodeo and hockey. It is a source of laughter from the time the players attempt to climb aboard the donkey until the final whistle.

New cowboy stars will be born during the show. Out of nowhere will come new heroes and heroines of the circus world. Of course the new found stars will only be local riders, but the thrills they give the fans will not be forgotten. You will want to bring the entire family for this fun-filled evening.

The donkeys are owned by Canyon Brothers Circus of Manchester, N.H. This assures fans a quality show, for the Canyon Brothers are leaders in the sports entertainment field with their world famous champion donkey hockey team.

This fun-filled show is sponsored by the junior class of Wilmington High School and admission will be $1.00 for students and $1.50 for adults. Advance tickets may be purchased at the High School. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Goblins Gala at Austin Prep

The Athletic Committee of Austin Prep of Reading will present its annual autumn social, "Goblins Gala," on Saturday evening, October 20th at the school.

The evening will feature dancing to the music of The Ticket from 8 pm to midnight. A barbecued chicken dinner will be served at approximately 8:30 pm. In keeping with the Halloween theme, costumes are optional, with prizes for the best ones.

The Athletic Committee invites everyone to attend, and to bring their friends. All proceeds from the dance will benefit the school's athletic program.

Tickets are $6.00 per person, advance sales only. They may be obtained and table reservations arranged by calling Mrs. Isabelle MacLean 663-3719 or the school, 944-4900.

When you are on an expressway, remember that stops, other than at rest areas, should not be made unless there is an emergency.

Never pull over to stop without signalling. Move your car as far off the pavement as the shoulder permits. If you need help, you can signal for it by raising the hood of your automobile. Never walk or stand on the travelled part of the expressway.

Sometimes it is of great benefit to carry emergency signs in your trunk to tip off passing motorists. Tie a handkerchief around your antenna to attract help.

You'll find it's also of great benefit to rely on WILMINGTON FORD, 275 Main St., Rt. 38, Wilmington, 658-6800 for all your automotive needs. Our long-employed mechanics and parts people will provide you with expert service, and we encourage you to explain in detail what's wrong with your car. Call me, Fred Golini, and I'll be glad to make an appointment to help you properly schedule your car's service. Hours: sales, 9-10 Mon-Fri; 8-4 Sat; service, 7-30-9 Mon-Fri; 7-30-5 Sat.

Helpful hint

Never follow too closely at high speeds; most accidents are rear-end type collisions.

His name is Big Mouth Harry

Hugh Wiberg of Andover Street, Wilmington is a gardener extraordinary. He raises Chinese Chestnuts, and a lot of other things, including something called Squinkins.

A Squinkin isn't a Squinkin until it tips the scales at 150 pounds. Hugh shows them, every year, over at the Topsfield Fair, and a year ago one of his Squinkins weighed 210 pounds.

So, when a giant Squinkin appeared at the Whitefield School on October 7, and weighing in at 160 pounds it was more than just a subject of conversation.

The young people adopted the newcomer, and adopted him as a project. The project was to give the Squinkin a life story and a name.

The members of grades one and two gave Harry a head, form and costume. Grades three and four youngsters wrote stories about Harry's adventures on Halloween.

Harry the Squinkin became a motivating force, both in art and in language.

The judging was done by the youngsters, and four champions named: Margaret Lawrence, Stacey Palmer, Steven Roche and Marie MacDonald.

A NICE 70TH BIRTHDAY

Dorothy Ryan lives in Arlington, and works for the Munroe Paper Company in North Wilmington. About a week ago she was the victim of a purse snatcher, in Arlington.

The lady was a bit roughed up during the robbery, and the monetary loss, including the cost of replacing keys and purse, etc., came to about $300. It just so happened that last Friday was Dorothy's 70th birthday.

She became the surprised and pleased recipient of a $300 money award, made up by her fellow employees. The award was for her 70th birthday, but also because the employees think Dorothy is a very nice lady.

DOROTHY RYAN, With (left) Al Weesley of North Andover and Dave Sarna of Stenham. The check is for $300.

Ducks at Rotary Park

Yesterday noon the hunting season opened in Massachusetts for duck, and yesterday afternoon the pond and grass at Rotary Park, in Wilmington was home ground to about 100 wild ducks.

They quite evidently know that there would be no hunting at Rotary Park. The number was up from that of a year ago when the season opened.

Meanwhile there were complaints from people living on Nathan Road of pellets from shotguns falling on their homes. Nathan Road is off Wildwood Street, and near Maple Meadow Brook, and is "behind" what used to be called the Veteran's Housing Project.

It is not known whether or not any duck were shot, in the Nathan Road area. But there were irate calls from home owners about the indiscriminate shooting.
